

Concrete Tank Foundations

Genesis Energy/Webster, TX

Scope of work included the construction of two (2) concrete tank foundations. The foundations ranged from 650 to 1100 cubic yards of concrete each, poured monolithically. Complications and delays from summer time temperatures were avoided by pouring the foundations at night.

In addition to the structural concrete, we performed all of the site preparation and grading required before, during and after the tank constructions.

