

Energy Site Preparation

Sandridge Energy Ft. Stockton, TX

This project consisted of the 100-acre site development for a dual train gas facility.

Scope was comprised of cut and fill, construction of base roads, installation of storm drainage, structural excavation and establishment of evaporation ponds including HDPE liners.

Approximately 800,000 cubic yards of on-site dirt was manipulated.

